Advocating and Supporting School Librarians

Associated School Librarians of Fairfax County

www.aslfc.org

Associated School Librarians of Fairfax County is a professional organization for all librarians, both current and retired, in Fairfax County Public Schools. ASLFC Membership is also open to friends—anyone who would like to maintain a link with the organization. As a member you will:

- ❖ Participate in a professional organization that advocates library services
- ❖ Experience professional growth through committees, meetings and workshops
- ❖ Have opportunities to network with other librarians in FCPS
- ❖ Support annual traditions such as the Reception for School Board members, Principals and Librarians Dinner and the Spring Tea/Annual Meeting

-Ellen McNair, Current ASLFC Membership
-Nancy Davis, Retired ASLFC Membership
